

Nik Nevin

Associate

Nik's practice focuses on complex civil and commercial litigation. He represents clients in a diverse collection of civil matters, including cases involving antitrust issues, data privacy, and government investigations.

Prior to joining Glavin PLLC, Nik worked the private and non-profit sectors, including representing indigent immigrants before the Department of Homeland Security. During law school, Nik participated in the Federal Criminal Justice Clinic.

CONTACT

nnevin@glavinpllc.com

646.693.5505

EDUCATION

- The University of Chicago Law School, J.D.
- Amherst College, B.A.

ADMISSIONS

- New York
- Washington, D.C.