

Thomas Halpern

Associate

Thomas (“Tommy”) Halpern is an Associate at Glavin PLLC.

Tommy’s practice focuses on complex commercial litigation and securities. He has represented clients in matters involving financial services, securities, contract disputes and products liability. Tommy has broad experience representing clients in all phases of litigation. He has successfully represented clients at trial in multiple cases before federal and state courts in New York, as well as the Delaware Court of Chancery. Tommy also has broad experience representing clients in all forms of alternative dispute resolution and has effectively negotiated advantageous settlements to avoid protracted litigation.

In addition, Tommy maintains an active pro bono practice representing clients for violations of civil liberties as well as in disputes involving immigration, housing, and employment matters.

While in law school, Tommy served as a judicial extern for Judge Denny Chin of the Second Circuit Court of Appeals and as a judicial intern for Justice Linda S. Jamieson of the Commercial Division of the New York State Supreme Court.
